

Imenco Taurus Winch

Designed for weather-exposed locations

The Aquaculture Camera winch is made of weather-resistant materials and has brackets for flexible attachment to different cage systems. The Aquaculture Camera winch is remote-controlled via Ethernet with the help of a dedicated control unit or local switches.

The control unit is placed in a cage cabinet or its own separate cabinet. The winch motors have stainless steel shafts and are equipped with a motor brake.